

Frederick Anderson
15 year old Bugler with First Hussars 1913

Served in France and Belgium 1915-1918

With the Canadian Light Horse
(1st Hussars)
in their attack at Vimy Ridge April 9, 1917

Awarded Meritorious Service Medal for Gallantry

Joined Royal Air Force in 1919

Returned to Canada

Moved to Detroit

Unsuccessful Venture in Manufacturing his own aircraft the Arocoupe

Joined US Army Air Corps in 1926

Specialized in aerial reconnaissance

Overseas to England in 1943
Flew Spitfires and Mustangs

Col Anderson Over Normandy

Commanded
67th Tactical Reconnaissance Group photographing entire French coast.

In 1944 Posted to Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force to plan Reconnaissance Missions for D-Day

His unit's photographs of French coast appeared at the bottom of secret D Day maps

Brigadier General FR Anderson USAF

